CAREER OBJECTIVE

My goal is to become a Django backend developer in both local and international contexts by delivering value through creative solutions and effective promotion. I aim to establish myself as a Senior Backend Developer within the next 4-5 years, leveraging my expertise in Django, database management, and backend architecture to contribute to the success of projects and organizations while maintaining a strong focus on innovation and quality

WORK EXPERIENCE

Creative IT Institute

16-08-2023 -8-11-2023

INDUSTRIAL ATTACHMENT PYTHON WITH DJANGO

During my industrial attachment at Creative IT Institute, I had the opportunity to immerse myself in the world of web development, with a particular focus on Python and the Django framework. The experience was both enriching and hands-on, allowing me to apply the theoretical knowledge I'd gained in a real-world setting. I actively participated in various projects under the guidance of experienced developers. This provided me with invaluable exposure to the entire development lifecycle. I was involved in designing and implementing web applications, creating and optimizing databases,
